

ASH / REGIONAL COMPARISON

Six regions, two levels

Twelve fieldbooks; 240 records

Five sites, five encounters, five NPCs and five treasures in each packet. Each region has a level 1 and level 10 packet with distinct seeds. Use the PDF bookmarks to open a packet.

What the comparison found

The original generator failed on three level 10 regions because their native wandering tables lacked eligible creatures. An unbounded minimum of 1 admitted level 8 creatures to novice packets. The nine successful baseline packets had fifteen repeated species.

The revised generator supports an upper level limit and an explicit existing-stock pool. It samples without replacement until exhausted and seeds repeated profiles independently. These twelve revised samples all succeed without repeated encounter species. The seeds stay fixed across the before/after review; the pool and range changes are intentional.

Level 1 packets use creature LV 1-3. Level 10 packets use LV 10-16, including an explicitly selected LV 16 Balor substitute. These ranges do not establish balanced combats. Site guardians keep their act bands; NPCs retain LV 1-3. The Nord in the Seawolf substitute is LV 2; its Sea Serpent is LV 12.

Regional site details and family activities use version 2 authored source tables, selected procedurally. A Nord without a serpent no longer receives the serpent activity text. Custom stock choices may extend beyond native regional tables; no regional canon is silently enlarged.

Remaining gaps: full room keys and clue chains, magic-item attributes, symbolic weakness effects and malformed source stats. They stay marked unresolved. This is a twelve-sample review, not a statistical balance study. Full audit records and seeds accompany the HTML fieldbooks.

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts. Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

Reeds scrape the causeway. Beyond the last worked field, a line of ancient trees hides the road.

Elga brings the work to the party through Gloaming Fen-Herders. Elga is tracking an outlaw, monster or rival who has fled into the wilds.

Begin at Caverns of the Hollow Beast. Secure Silver-and-gold circlet (40 gp), in the rain-spoiled wall niche of the lost herd. Collect three wrapped bundles of quicksalt, from the salvaged ritual stores. Secure the rain-spoiled passage, blocked by a rockfall nobody has cleared. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The job offers a way to settle a dispute over access. Taking the reward without completing the objectives leaves the route and its claim unresolved.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts.

Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

Mist gathers between the trees and the old boundary stones. The nearest hearth is already hidden behind the branches.

Eltor brings the work to the party through Knights of St. Ydris. Eltor is hiding from a collector or bounty hunter.

Begin at Farmstead of the Quiet Beast. Lift the curse affecting the disputed bell, on which whoever takes from it is followed home. Lift the curse affecting the abandoned family vault, on which the same hour repeats for anyone who stays past dark. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The local faction wants the work completed before rivals can claim its outcome. Failure leaves the claim unsettled; success gives the party a result they can bring back and defend.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts. Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

Heat shimmers above the stone flats. Caravans gather where the last shade reaches the well.

Branora brings the work to the party through Thraxis Arena Masters. Branora is tracking an outlaw, monster or rival who has fled into the wilds.

Begin at Ruins of the Sundered Usurper. Examine the salvaged ledger recording the trade route. Examine the overgrown muster book recording the trade route. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The request has become a public test of the faction's promises. Completing the objectives supplies a concrete result; abandoning them sends the dispute back to the assembly.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.

The Silt Sea / Level 10

The Silt Sea

Seed: region-review-2026-10-03-red_sands-lv10

Zone: red_sands

Encounter creature level range: 10-16

Monster pool: djinni, dragon_desert, mummy, golem_iron, roc

Records: 20 | Format version: 1

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts.

Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

Heat shimmers above the stone flats. Caravans gather where the last shade reaches the well.

Nevilo brings the work to the party through Burning Brothers. Nevilo is tracking an outlaw, monster or rival who has fled into the wilds.

Begin at Hideout of the Barren Trade Road. Examine the unworked records recording the lost herd.

Rescue Martor, Halfling Priest, held at the disputed collapsed cut. Recover an intact Manta Ray Giant clutch in the unworked silt bank. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The job offers a way to settle a dispute over access. Taking the reward without completing the objectives leaves the route and its claim unresolved.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.

Hrafnfjord

Seed: region-review-2026-10-03-midnight_sun-lv1

Zone: midnight_sun

Encounter creature level range: 1-3

Monster pool: nord, dverg, sea_nymph, wolf, boar

Records: 20 | Format version: 1

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts.

Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

Meltwater runs between the standing stones. Beyond the sheltered farms, snow still fills the mountain cuts.

Maras brings the work to the party through Sea Wolf Clans. Maras needs two fresh venom glands or rare herbs.

Begin at Caverns of the Unfinished Cult. Rescue Willow, Halfling Bard, held at the salvaged holding pen. Rescue Ruhiel, High Elf Monk, held at the unworked shuttered cell. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The local faction wants the work completed before rivals can claim its outcome. Failure leaves the claim unsettled; success gives the party a result they can bring back and defend.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts. Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

Sea spray freezes along the landing ropes. Turf roofs and carved prows shelter beneath the basalt cliffs.

Gendry brings the work to the party through Sea Wolf Clans. Gendry secretly gathers information for a faction or local ruler.

Begin at Caverns of the Buried Beast. Examine the unworked ledger recording the trade route. Examine the rain-spoiled survey rolls recording the abandoned store. Examine the salvaged correspondence recording the district's safe passage. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The local faction wants the work completed before rivals can claim its outcome. Failure leaves the claim unsettled; success gives the party a result they can bring back and defend.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts. Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

Roots grip the old stonework. A narrow trail leaves the cultivated bank and vanishes beneath the canopy.

Ilfen brings the work to the party through Black River Guides. Ilfen secretly gathers information for a faction or local ruler.

Begin at Barrow of the Hollow Guild. Secure the abandoned stair head, blocked by a collapsed winch and its cut cable. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The local faction wants the work completed before rivals can claim its outcome. Failure leaves the claim unsettled; success gives the party a result they can bring back and defend.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts.

Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

Rain ticks against the broad leaves. The river carries dark silt past the landing steps.

Martor brings the work to the party through Itzalca Free Communities. Martor is searching the nearby wilderness for a family relic.

Begin at Fortress of the Barren Family. Lift the curse affecting the unworked memorial, on which wounds taken here do not close until it is lifted. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The job offers a way to settle a dispute over access. Taking the reward without completing the objectives leaves the route and its claim unresolved.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts. Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

The cavern roof disappears above the lamps. A rope crossing leads toward abandoned stone chambers.

Tirolas brings the work to the party through Librarians of Leng. Tirolas is guiding a trade caravan toward the next frontier settlement.

Begin at Caverns of the Sundered Trade Road. Secure Magic wand, 2nd-tier spell (100 gp), in the rain-spoiled pay chest of the old claim. Secure Silver-and-gold circlet (40 gp), in the unworked toll box of the district's safe passage. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The job offers a way to settle a dispute over access. Taking the reward without completing the objectives leaves the route and its claim unresolved.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts. Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

Water falls somewhere beyond the lamplight. The stone passage carries a cold draught from the deeper galleries.

Barvin brings the work to the party through Deep Delver Guild. Barvin secretly gathers information for a faction or local ruler.

Begin at Wreck of the Quiet Trade Road. Break the overgrown lock array on the family holding, answering only to a spoken roster of names. Collect three sealed jars of witch-iron, from the salvaged reagent cells. Overcome the Elephant holding the disputed threshold of the abandoned store. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The local faction wants the work completed before rivals can claim its outcome. Failure leaves the claim unsettled; success gives the party a result they can bring back and defend.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.

Coffin dependence: Must rest in a coffin daily or lose 2d6 HP per day; that loss cannot heal until coffin rest.

SOURCE / Weakness

Direct sunlight: Takes 3d8 damage each round in direct sunlight.

SOURCE / Weakness

Wooden stake at 0 HP: A wooden stake through the heart at 0 HP permits permanent death.

UNRESOLVED / Weakness

The Hermit: A particular solitary vigil or guiding lamp exposes its hidden dependence. [Theme; effect needs authoring.]

UNRESOLVED / Weakness

Justice: Evidence, restitution, or a fair verdict strips its stolen advantage. [Theme; effect needs authoring.]

UNRESOLVED / Weakness

Trust: A promise or accepted token of trust binds it to a disadvantageous commitment. [Theme; effect needs authoring.]

SOURCE / Weakness

Psychic: Takes twice the damage from psychic damage.

UNRESOLVED / Weakness

Laziness: Its aversion to effort makes it concede an obligation or lapse into exploitable torpor. [Theme; effect needs authoring.]

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts.

Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

Rain darkens the piazza stones. Messengers cross the bridges while watchmen check the gates.

Elten brings the work to the party through Meridia City Watch. Elten is tracking an outlaw, monster or rival who has fled into the wilds.

Begin at Archive of the Quiet Beast. Rescue Bram, Human Monk, held at the disputed flooded hold. Secure Radiant, polished pearl (40 gp), in the salvaged sealed coffer of the old claim. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The job offers a way to settle a dispute over access. Taking the reward without completing the objectives leaves the route and its claim unresolved.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.

SOURCE / Ability

Interpose. triggered defence; spends its next attack action; once per fight. Trigger: A close ally is hit by a melee attack while the guard is standing. Range: close. The guard immediately shifts to an unoccupied reachable position close to that ally and takes the triggering attack's damage and riders instead. The shift cannot pass through an enemy. It forfeits its next attack action, but may still move on that turn. It must be conscious and able to move; it cannot intercept area damage. Telegraph: It keeps its weapon across the approach to the person it protects. Behaviour: Use for the protected person named before the encounter; if none is named, protect the close ally with the lowest current HP, choosing randomly on ties.

SOURCE / Weakness

Force: Takes twice the damage from force damage.

Story and descriptions use stored, versioned templates. Tarot meanings remain prompts.

Missing mechanics remain unresolved.

Canal water laps against the landing. Above it, shuttered galleries overlook the crowded quay.

Giresa brings the work to the party through Meridia City Watch. Giresa is looking for an expedition to join as a paid retainer.

Begin at Mill of the Abandoned Ritual. Overcome the Bear Brown holding the disputed sealed door of the trade route. Each section has its own holder and marked threshold. The other listed sites are additional jobs in the same region.

The local faction wants the work completed before rivals can claim its outcome. Failure leaves the claim unsettled; success gives the party a result they can bring back and defend.

The associated encounters use the listed reaction rolls. Treasure is allocated to the listed sites, but its discovery and access still need to be resolved in play. Tarot meanings are prompts; they do not add an unlisted power or compel an outcome.
